The Author transfers the copyright on the Contribution to IFIP. Springer will print the following copyright notice in the Contribution: "Copyright © International Federation for Information Processing YEAR. Published by Springer-Verlag GmbH Berlin Heidelberg YEAR. All Rights Reserved."

Springer will take, either in its own name or in the name of IFIP or the Author, any necessary steps to protect the copyright against infringement by third parties. It will have the copyright notice inserted into all editions of the Contribution according to the provisions of the Universal Copyright Convention (UCC) and dutifully take care of all formalities in this connection.

If the Author performed the work described in the Contribution as government work that is not subject to copyright protection, the Author transfers the publishing rights to Springer to the extent transferable, and the copyright is not transferred to IFIP.

§ 2 Rights Retained by the Author

The Author retains, in addition to uses permitted by law, the right to communicate the content of the Contribution to other scientists, to share the Contribution with them in manuscript form, to perform or present the Contribution or to use the content for non-commercial internal and educational purposes, provided the IFIP-Springer publication is mentioned as the original source of publication in any printed or electronic materials.

The Author retains the right to republish the Contribution in any collection consisting solely of the Author's own works without charge and subject only to notifying Springer in writing prior to such publication of the intent to do so and to ensuring that the IFIP-Springer publication is properly credited and that the relevant copyright notice is repeated verbatim.

The Author may self-archive an author-created version of his/her Contribution on his/her own website and/or in his/her institutional repository, including his/her final version. He/she may also deposit this version on his/her funder's or funder's designated repository at the funder’s request or as a result of a legal obligation, provided it is not made publicly available until 12 months after official publication. He/she may not use the publisher’s PDF version, which is posted on www.springerlink.com, for the purpose of self-archiving or deposit. Furthermore, the author may only post his/her version provided acknowledgement is given to the original source of publication and a link is inserted to the published article on Springer’s website. The Author also retains the right to use, without having to pay a fee, parts of the Contribution (e.g., illustrations) for inclusion in future work, and to publish a substantially revised version (at least 30% new content) elsewhere, provided that the original Contribution is properly cited.

An employer who originally owned copyright retains the right to distribute definitive copies of its author-employee’s work within its organization. Posting these works is limited to noncommercial access and personal use within the employer’s organization, and must include any copyright notice embedded within the full text file of the definitive version and in any accompanying citation display as well.

§ 3 Warranties

The Author warrants that his/her Contribution is original except for such excerpts from copyrighted works (including illustrations, tables, and text quotations) as may be included with the permission of the copyright holder thereof, in which case(s) the Author warrants that written permission has been obtained for all copyrighted material and that the precise source has been indicated in the Contribution. Springer has the right to permit others to use individual illustrations within the usual limits. The Author warrants that the Contribution has not heretofore been published, that it contains no libelous statements and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory rights or proprietary rights of others. The Author releases and discharges Springer and IFIP from any cost, expenses, damages, or other liability for which Springer or IFIP may become liable as a result of any breach of these warranties.
